San Nicolas Kids Super Happy First Day Of School.

The long awaited first day of school finally arrived, and the kids could not be happier, seeing friend and making new friends is one of the best parts of school. Teachers also did their parts to make sure all the new social distancing rules are in effect, some smaller schools even brought in Micky & Minny Mouse wearing face mask to show that it's ok to wear a mask .

Centro Di Bario Brazil Parade Social Distance Style.

Normally the streets of Brazil is filled with hundreds of people celebrating their parade, however due to the Corona Virus things have changed, but not to let this culture die, they held a small but staying within all the social distancing and mask rules. For The Love Of The Culture .

Be Like.....(Poem By David Quant)

Be like this, be like that,

This is when I learned that being me is bad,

This is when I learn that maybe I shouldn't speak so loud,

And if I acted a certain way, I would be accepted by the crowd,

If I wasn't fully myself, then they would be more proud,

And if I covered my true feelings, I would avoid raising any doubts,

With pressure growing around me, to be something that I'm not,

I hold on to don't lose myself, with the words that You brought,

I'm fearfully and wonderfully made,

I'm covered and accepted, created by love in every way,

If You knew and predestined me before the creation of the earth,

Why now am I letting creation rob me from my purpose on this earth,

I was given purpose, identity and a sense of self,

And the Potter's hands creates no mistakes, so regardless of opinions.. I will accept myself

SeaBob Aruba Saves Another Turtle

We have lost count on how much sea turtles and other marine life the company of Seabob Aruba has saved, we were lucky to capture them in action during one of their tours, this time another baby turtle was caught up in old fishing lines that broke off from fishing boats about to die when Tonnie a tour guide from Seabob Aruba saw the turtle in distress and got it the help it deserves, turtle is recovering fine. Great Job Guys will be tagging the Aruba Government in this as this deserves an award.
